Hawley House

Hawley House (c.1878) hosts guests in a unique and spectacular sea-side setting. Hawley is the original homestead of the 150 hectare Rubicon Estate, which has been the Houghton family's home for three generations. Hawley unashamedly embraces the patina created by her 130 year history, and the idiosyncrasies that come with being first and foremost a family home, not least of which is her unique rooftop bath.

- Ensuite Bathrooms
- Eclectic and original artwork and furnishings
- Homegrown produce and estate grown wines served daily
- Extensive wine cellar
- Pets permitted by prior arrangement
